To Whom it May Concern,

Isaac Powell has worked for my company for just over two years and I consider him a great asset.

In a very short amount of time, I have seen him go from inexperienced woodworker to one of the most conscientious, detailed, reliable workers I have. Not only has Isaac learned this trade in a very short time, I consider him one of my best craftsmen, and I will be sorry to see him go.

Isaac has often come to me with clever ideas, and suggestions to improve efficiency of the shop. He is insightful, very creative, a good problem-solver, and has an excellent work ethic. He maintains working relationships with humor and ease. I often put Isaac on important custom jobs knowing that he works very well in a team. Isaac possesses the maturity, relational and professional skills needed to lead, and for these reasons, I offered him the position of production manager.

In short, Isaac would be a valuable addition to any company. I highly recommend him. Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

Darrin Westermann
